Port Bay Club Newsletter

February 2, 2022

Dear Port Bay Club Members,

Hello everyone. Another hunting season has come and gone at the Port Bay Club. Please join me in thanking our great team down at the club for making this season a great success (despite a lack of cooperation from the waterfowl!). Thanks to Tye and Lisa for all their hard work this year and everything they do for us to be able to just relax and enjoy the facilities and camaraderie of the club. Thanks also to Jeremy and his team of guides for another great year in very tough hunting conditions. Thanks also to Miguel and to Rhonda for all they do at the club. As per usual, the club will be closed for the next few weeks from January 31 to February 18 so that our team can catch up on some rest and do all the necessary post-season maintenance on the facilities.

The club will reopen on February 18.

Abandoned Crab Trap Removal Efforts

As in past years, the club will be part of the annual crab trap removal program where Texas Parks and Wildlife organizes teams to remove abandoned crab traps from our bays. John Kisalus, who organizes Port Bay Club's efforts here, has set the date for our participation for February 19. Come and help us hunt for and remove abandoned crab traps in the waters surrounding the club!

Annual Meeting April 2 at the Club:

The date for the annual meeting has been set for Saturday, April 2, at the club. As before, we plan on having drinks and hors d'oeuvres on Friday, April 1, the annual meeting on Saturday, followed by dinner Saturday night. There will also be a spouses' luncheon on Saturday. Details for all these events should be forthcoming soon. I hope as many of you as possible can make it. Be on the lookout for more information, including the agenda for the meeting.

Welcome to Our Newest Members:

Welcome two new members who have joined the club since my last newsletter: Andrew Ritchie from Friendswood and Penn McClatchey from Atlanta, Georgia. Both have been longtime visitors at the club—Andrew as a visitor and guest of member John Hallmark, and Penn with his brother and longtime member, Bill McClatchey. Welcome aboard to both as official members!

Dues Notices Coming Soon:

It is time again for dues notices to be sent out. Keep an eye out in the next few weeks for dues notices to arrive. Dues will remain the same as last year, and I hope we can count on you to continue to support the club with timely payment.
